

Europe Day 2015

Photography Master Classes & Workshops

About the project

In the scope of Europe Day celebrations, the EU Delegation in Armenia is organising photography master classes and workshops, whereby Armenian photographers will have the opportunity to work alongside a well known European photographer and learn the art of storytelling through his experience! After the master classes and workshops, the collaborative efforts of all participating photographers will be exhibited in Vanadzor, Gyumri and Yerevan.

If you are a photographer and you would like to meet a world renowned photographer, join us for master classes and workshops with Maciek Nabrdalik, and together create your best works in the scope of “EU-Armenia, partnership to cooperation” photo exhibition!

Several field workshops to EUD funded-project sites will follow the introductory master class. The participating photographers will learn about storytelling and photojournalism in a hands-on environment.

Photos produced by participants will be discussed and critiqued by Maciek on subsequent days. There will be photo exhibitions organized in Vanadzor, Gyumri and Yerevan in the weeks to follow, celebrating European and Armenian cooperation!

Maciek Nabrdalik is a documentary photographer and a member of the prestigious VII Photo agency. Maciek's work has been exhibited in the U.S., Mexico, France, Italy, Germany, Czech Republic, Greece and Poland and appears in the L'Espresso, Stern, Newsweek, Bloomberg Businessweek, Smithsonian Magazine, Polityka, New York Times and The Wall Street Journal among others. His awards include honors from World Press Photo, Pictures of the Year International, NPPA The Best of Photojournalism and multiple awards in his native Poland. Maciek is specialized in storytelling, as his various projects prove (such as the book “The Irreversible” on Jewish concentration camps, the project “Homesick for Chernobyl”, etc). He has a long experience of documentary workshops.
